Practice the formation of the handwritten letters by first writing out the letter and then the word of the International Alphabet. These words are used around the world in oral public communication to spell out words so that there are no misunderstandings in the words being used. Practice about half a page a day.

Lion: 'L' as in Lima, 'i' as in India, 'o' as in Oscar, 'n' as in November.

Advice in Proverbs.

Handwriting is a "hollowed art" but "it destroys the craft not to learn it". However, one is "never too old to learn" it and "patience gains all". Handwriting will be "quick enough if it is good" since "speed and accuracy do not agree". At least "a good beginning is half the work" and "Your handwriting IS the signature of your character". Therefore, of your handwriting, make "your good be better and your better be best" and do it "all for the love of Jesus".
