

Practice the formation of the manuscript letters by first printing out the letter and then the word of the International Alphabet. These words are used around the world in oral public communication to spell out words so that there is no misunderstanding in the words being used.

The military and the medical field use the International Alphabet for clarity in communicating the spoken word.

Aa

Alpha

Bb

Bravo

Cc

Charlie

Dd

Delta

Ee

Echo

Ff

Foxtrot

Gg

Golf

Hh

Hotel

Ii

India

Jj

Juliott

Kk

Kilo

Ll

Lima

Mm

Mike

Nn

November

Oo

Oscar

Pp

Papa

Practice the formation of the manuscript letters by first printing out the letter and then the word of the International Alphabet. These words are used around the world in oral public communication to spell out words so that there is no misunderstanding in the words being used. Practice abbreviations as presented.

Printing is best used for maps, recipes, and labels. Print accurately so that there is no ambiguity in the spelling.

Qq

Quebec

Rr

Romeo

Ss

Sierra

Tt

Tango

Uu

Uniform

Vv

Victor

Ww

Whiskey

Xx

X-ray

Yy

Yankee

Zz

Zulu

1 2 3 4 5

6 7 8 9 10

() ! ? [] &

@ $ % / #

Gen.

Genesis

Ex.

Exodus

Deut.

Deuteronomy

Isa.

Isaias

Find the correct words in the box to complete the Scripture verses below and write them onto the lines provided. Then in your finest printing, copy each completed verse onto the space below each example, carefully imitating the size, spacing, and consistent uprightness of all the letters. Ten min. daily practice.

savior defense Lord work
Emmanuel dead above end

EF

1. Every perfect gift is from _____. (James 1.17)
2. Enter into the joy of thy _____. (Matt. 25. 21)
3. They shall call His name _____. (Matt. 1.23)
4. He loved them unto the _____. (John 13.1)
1. Faith without works is _____. (James 2. 20)
2. Forsake me not, O God my _____. (Ps. 26.9)
3. A faithful friend is a strong _____. (Ecclus. 6.4)
4. My Father worketh until now; and I _____. (John 5.17)